

PSYCHOLOGY ARTICULATION COMMITTEE

INSTITUTIONAL REPORT

BRITISH COLUMBIA COUNCIL on ADMISSIONS AND TRANSFERS (BCCAT)

06/05/2017

Columbia College at 438 Terminal Ave, Vancouver, BC

Crystal Ehresman
cehresman@columbiacollege.bc.ca

1. Institutional Update

- An Associate of Arts Degree with a Psychology Concentration has been approved by the Academic Board

2. Program/Course Update

- Psychology 280 Biological Psychology (3) and Psychology 260 Cognitive Psychology are currently being developed will need to be articulated.
- The Statistics course required for the Associate Degree Psychology Concentration is still being discussed. Currently:
 - Mathematics 206 Mathematical Statistics (3), or
 - Business 291 Business and Economics Applications of Statistics (4) will satisfy this requirement. Also:
 - Mathematics 105 Introductory Statistics is currently being articulated and will also satisfy this requirement once accepted for transfer by the universities (this has not yet been approved by our Psychology Department but has been recommended by administration.